WELCOME TO OUR TOWN IN THE TREES

Deep in the coastal woodlands of the Georgia Lowcountry, just south of Savannah. That's where you'll find neighbors who say hey and schools you can be proud of. (Go Wildcats!) Where the vibe is small town, but the ideas are big. Like, let's drive less and live more. Bring the local cuisine and boutiques to us. And everyday needs too, from grocery stores to pediatricians and even workplaces. Trails to run and forests to wander. (Absolutely an everyday need.) And a fresh mix of homes to gather all kinds of great people.

HEARTWOOD IS A TOWN IN THE MAKING.
AND IT'S CALLING YOU HOME.

Let the adventures begin

It's Saturday morning and Heartwood invites you to, well, do whatever you like. Bike a trail. Explore the forest. Hit a yoga class. On the other hand, walking for coffee and a pastry might be your preferred wake-up call. Heartwood's eateries, shops and services are growing in number, and so are community events from 5Ks to holiday tree lightings, planned by our very own lifestyle director.

FEELING GOOD IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD

We call it our blueprint for wellness. Heartwood was designed to make well-being less about effort and more about easy, healthy choices built right into your environment. Like having forests to wander, pools and parks to romp in, and Bē Health, a community-wide wellness initiative with St. Joseph's/Candler healthcare system.

WHAT YOU LOVE MEETS WHAT YOU NEED

Charming absolutely, but Heartwood is all about convenience, too. Grocery stores, shops, services, restaurants, entertainment and hotels are either here or in the works. Plus we already have major employers like Hyundai Mobis, FedEx and Amazon. (Talk about your dream commute.) Check out bustling Poplar Place. Get ready for handy grocery shopping at Arbor Marketplace. And look forward to all kinds of local shops, eateries and town square vibe coming to Outfitters Village.

FRIDAY NIGHT LIGHTS AND HAPPY MONDAY MORNINGS

It's hard to beat the school situation at Heartwood. Right here in our own community, you'll find one state-of-the-art campus with three schools that nurture your kids from kindergarten through senior year. All part of the A-rated, top 3% Bryan County Schools. So you can look forward to school days that start with an easy walk, bike or golf cart ride. And weeks that end with high school football games, tailgating and legendary fandom.

FIND YOUR HOMIEST OF HOMES

Some places instantly give you that "I feel right at home here" vibe. Like Heartwood. Already our town-in-the-making gives you five neighborhoods and four builders (with more to come) and dozens of home plans to choose from. So whether you're just starting out, an empty nester or somewhere in between, you'll be sure to find your homey, sweet home.
